I understand that I will be notified of summer session housing availability after submitting this application, and that this is a legally binding agreement. Preferred housing options and roommates are considered but cannot be guaranteed by the University, as it is not possible to satisfy the preferences of all housing applicants. Inability of the University to satisfy an applicant's preferences or requests will not be grounds for exemptions or cancellation of the Housing and Dining Contract. Students may be required to change housing at the University's discretion. I agree to abide by all the Housing and University Apartments, Residential Education, and WVU policies. Summer school residents are expected to vacate assigned space promptly on or before the last day of their class (as determined by application/contract agreement). The last date to cancel the housing contract is the day BEFORE your summer classes are scheduled to begin.
