This is optional. If you want to name someone, you need to provide the information requested below. If you do not want to submit missing person contact information, you may leave this section blank.

This is optional. If you want to name someone, you need to provide the information requested below. If you do not want to submit missing person contact information, you may leave this section blank.
Read and Boarding Hall Windowsell be assigned to a Resident withdrawing from the University according to the terms and conditions specified by the University in its policies, guidelines, and procedures. All decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis.

5. Room Cancelation

a) This Contract for the full academic year may be cancelled by the Housing and Dining Management System (HMS) and the University or upon cancellation of this Contract. When a Resident is removed for disciplinary reasons, the University reserves the right to cancel this Contract and remove the Resident from on-campus housing if the Resident fails to observe all University policies, guidelines, and procedures. This is expected to be completed within twenty-four hours of when a University policy is being violated.

b) The University reserves the right to assign students to short-term housing assignment; (4) when there is a reasonable basis for believing that a University policy is being violated.

6. Residence Hall Housing and Dining Application/Contract

Please complete this Application/Contract and return in the enclosed envelope (or mail to PO Box 6413, Morgantown, WV 26506-6413) with a $225 advance housing deposit made payable to WVU. If you decide not to enroll at the University, the deposit will be refunded after notification by May 1. All deposits made after May 1 are non-refundable.

Name:

Student Cell Phone #:

Gender:

Date of Birth:

 favored by Resident to move from single occupancy of double/ triple rooms to double or triple accommodations.

A Resident requesting to live on her dining plan will not be permitted to change Plan. Dining Dollars will be updated to reflect this change. This is expected to be completed within twenty-four hours of when a University policy is being violated.

Dining Periods

The University reserves the right to enter and inspect rooms without notice for purposes of (1) repairs, maintenance, facility needs, fire, health, and safety inspections made periodically, as well as at hall closing/vacation periods; (4) when there is a reasonable basis for believing that a Resident is engaging in activities (including but not limited to drug, alcohol and smoking) that violate University policies.

7. Room Assignment

a) The University reserves the right to assign rooms for the following reasons: (1) any real or perceived health or safety concern, (2) repair reasons, (3) disciplinary reasons caused by the Resident, or (4) for unresolved complaints from the Hall Director, Residents, or other students; or when an assignment adversely affects or interferes with the rights of others.

b) The University reserves the right to assign rooms for the following reasons: (1) any real or perceived health or safety concern, (2) repair reasons, (3) disciplinary reasons caused by the Resident, or (4) for unresolved complaints from the Hall Director, Residents, or other students; or when an assignment adversely affects or interferes with the rights of others; or when an assignment adversely affects or interferes with the rights of others.

c) The University reserves the right to assign rooms for the following reasons: (1) any real or perceived health or safety concern, (2) repair reasons, (3) disciplinary reasons caused by the Resident, or (4) for unresolved complaints from the Hall Director, Residents, or other students; or when an assignment adversely affects or interferes with the rights of others.

d) Room and board fees are refundable to a Resident withdrawing from the University according to established University and contract terms. This is expected to be completed within twenty-four hours of when a University policy is being violated.

5. Room Cancelation

a) The University reserves the right to assign rooms for the following reasons: (1) any real or perceived health or safety concern, (2) repair reasons, (3) disciplinary reasons caused by the Resident, or (4) for unresolved complaints from the Hall Director, Residents, or other students; or when an assignment adversely affects or interferes with the rights of others.

b) The University reserves the right to assign rooms for the following reasons: (1) any real or perceived health or safety concern, (2) repair reasons, (3) disciplinary reasons caused by the Resident, or (4) for unresolved complaints from the Hall Director, Residents, or other students; or when an assignment adversely affects or interferes with the rights of others.

6. Residence Hall Housing and Dining Application/Contract

Please complete this Application/Contract and return in the enclosed envelope (or mail to PO Box 6413, Morgantown, WV 26506-6413) with a $225 advance housing deposit made payable to WVU. If you decide not to enroll at the University, the deposit will be refunded after notification by May 1. All deposits made after May 1 are non-refundable.

Name:

Student Cell Phone #:

Gender:

Date of Birth:

Yes, I am interested in Greek or programs.

Yes, I want to stay in Honors housing if admitted to the Honors College.

Please refer to the University’s Residence Life website for more information on holiday housing.
The University reserves the right to consolidate vacancies by room if vacancies exist. When rooms become limited and halls begin to fill, HMS will no longer accept applications for residence halls. Applicants who are accepted will be notified by email of their assigned room. HMS will work to fill any vacancies until the end of the semester because occupancy is being finalized during this time. Residents needing to remain in University housing during holiday/semester breaks must complete the housing application process and pay the required deposit. Residents must indicate their need for on-campus housing and agree to the granting of their request. These deadlines are December 1 for the spring term and May 1 for the fall term.

6. Meal Plan

a) University is a policy that all students residing in University Residence halls participate in the dining program with a Resident Meal Plan assigned to each student.

b) Meal plan is assigned to each student. Food plans are based on the following minimum requirements:

1. Most meals and beverages are available in the residence halls. A Resident’s meal plan allows them to eat at the residence hall cafeteria.

2. The meal plan includes a certain amount of meals per week at the residence hall cafeteria. Additional meals can be purchased with Dining Dollars.

3. Dining Dollars can be used for food purchases at the residence hall cafeteria. Dining Dollars expire at the end of each term. There will be no refunds for unused Dining Dollars.

4. If a Resident officially withdraws from the University (drops all classes), and procedures, and guidelines are designed to enhance your Residential experience.

5. Residents are encouraged to sign up for ResNet services.

6. Residents who wish to use ResNet services must sign up by August 1.

7. Residents who wish to use ResNet services must sign up by August 1.

8. Damages to University property are subject to replacement costs. If a Resident造成的损害，应由该室友承担。此合同的条款和条件，以及任何其他适用的政策，均应视为合同的一部分，受本合同的约束。

10. Withdrawal Policies

a) If a Resident withdraws from the University (drops all classes), and procedures, and guidelines are designed to enhance your Residential experience.

b) Residents who wish to use ResNet services must sign up by August 1.

11. Room Change

b) Room and board fees are refundable to a Resident withdrawing from the University. If a Resident officially withdraws from the University (drops all classes), and procedures, and guidelines are designed to enhance your Residential experience.

12. Check-In and Check-Out

a) If a Resident checks in to a residence hall before the scheduled move-in date, he or she will be asked to leave the residence hall. Residents must check-in to their residence hall on or before the scheduled move-in date. If a Resident moves in after the scheduled move-in date, he or she will be asked to leave the residence hall. Residents must check-in to their residence hall on or before the scheduled move-in date. If a Resident moves in after the scheduled move-in date, he or she will be asked to leave the residence hall. Residents must check-in to their residence hall on or before the scheduled move-in date.

13. Roommate Change

a) Roommate changes will be considered only if the new roommate can meet the eligibility requirements set forth in this contract.

b) Roommate changes will be considered only if the new roommate can meet the eligibility requirements set forth in this contract.

14. Room Inspections

a) Residents are encouraged to notify the University of any violations of the Housing and University Apartments guidelines. A Resident may inspect his or her room and its furnishings, and for maintaining acceptable conditions.

b) Residents are encouraged to notify the University of any violations of the Housing and University Apartments guidelines. A Resident may inspect his or her room and its furnishings, and for maintaining acceptable conditions.

15. Roommate-Only Units

a) Roommate-Only units are available to students who have been assigned to residence halls. A Resident may request a roommate change, and the University reserves the right to make a roommate change, if the Residence Hall Director finds that the change is necessary for the health and safety of the hall community.

b) If a Resident officially withdraws from the University (drops all classes), and procedures, and guidelines are designed to enhance your Residential experience.

16. Roommate Change

a) Roommate changes will be considered only if the new roommate can meet the eligibility requirements set forth in this contract.

b) Roommate changes will be considered only if the new roommate can meet the eligibility requirements set forth in this contract.

17. Roommate-Only Units

a) Roommate-Only units are available to students who have been assigned to residence halls. A Resident may request a roommate change, and the University reserves the right to make a roommate change, if the Residence Hall Director finds that the change is necessary for the health and safety of the hall community.

b) If a Resident officially withdraws from the University (drops all classes), and procedures, and guidelines are designed to enhance your Residential experience.

18. Roommate Change

a) Roommate changes will be considered only if the new roommate can meet the eligibility requirements set forth in this contract.

b) Roommate changes will be considered only if the new roommate can meet the eligibility requirements set forth in this contract.