

RESIDENTIAL HOUSING CONTRACT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The following Terms and Conditions are legally binding for the entire academic year and should be read thoroughly:

1. Binding Agreement.

By accepting these Terms and Conditions, the student, and if the student is under the age of 18, the student's Parent/Guardian (collectively referred to as "Resident"), agrees to the Terms and Conditions stated in this Contract, including the University's Community Standards of Conduct (<https://housing.wvu.edu/policies/residence-halls/community-standards-of-conduct>) and Campus Student Code (<https://studentconduct.wvu.edu/campus-student-code>).

2. Eligibility and Exemptions.

Any undergraduate student who is accepted by the University as a full-time student may enter into this Contract, subject to room availability. Room and dining services are available on a combined basis for residence hall students as mandated by the West Virginia University Board of Governors. This Contract may not be transferred or assigned. Unless granted an exemption by the University. All students classified as freshmen (less than 24 hours of WVU-accepted college credit) who will not have reached their 21st birthday by the start date of this Contract must live in a West Virginia University Residence Hall for a full academic year (Aug-May). The following exemptions may apply, subject to verification and approval by WVU:

3. Duration of Contract; No Estate Created.

- a. This Contract is binding for the entire academic year (fall and spring term) or that portion of the academic year remaining at the time of occupancy. Failure to claim a key and/or ID card does not release a student from the obligations set forth in this Contract. This Contract cannot be terminated except as set forth herein.
- b. The Resident shall vacate the assigned room within 24 hours upon loss of status as an enrolled WVU student or if Resident fails to register as a WVU student for credit course work. The University reserves the right to use a student's disciplinary status as a factor in providing, denying, or cancelling on-campus housing.
- c. The Resident agrees that this Contract does not create a landlord-tenant relationship or otherwise grant the Resident any interest in real property.

4. Resident Expectations.

- a. The University will provide a residential living space to the Resident for a period of one academic year (fall and spring term) exclusive of vacation periods or any other period when the University is officially closed ("the regular Contract period") unless the Resident has specially requested housing outside of the regular Contract period. An additional fee will be assessed and a separate agreement will be required for housing provided outside of the regular Contract period. Residence hall service, including access to the assigned hall and room, begins on the official Opening Day.
- b. The University will provide residence hall staff in accordance with University policy to provide a living experience which complements the University's academic mission. Staffing and Services are limited during established break periods as outlined in section 15 of this Contract.

Resident agrees to pay all assessed fees and to abide by the Terms and Conditions of this Contract and other University rules and regulations, including but not limited to those set forth in WVU's Community Standards of Conduct and Campus Student Code. 6. Rates and Payment.

- a. A room will not be assigned until an advance deposit of $225.00 (for new or returning Residents) is submitted with the student's housing application. This advance deposit will be credited to the applicable semester housing invoice. The deposit may be partially refunded if the Assignments Office receives written cancellation by May 1, pursuant to Section (9) of this contract.
- b. Room and dining charges must be paid prior to the beginning of each semester. Room assignments may be cancelled by the University if the balance is not paid prior to the first day of classes for the start of the term or by a stipulated due date in accordance with WVU BOG Finance and Administration Rule 5.13, or if alternate payment arrangements have not been approved by the University's Office of Student Accounts.
- c. No refunds will be made to a Resident who fails to return to an assigned hall/room unless the Resident has followed established Housing and Residence Life/Dining Services policies and has been officially released from this Contract. - d. Room and Dining Plan fees are refundable to a Resident who is properly withdrawing from the University pursuant to established University and Housing and Residence Life guidelines. A Resident removed for disciplinary reasons will be held accountable for 100% of the financial obligations required under this contract.

After the self-selection period ends, the University will assign students to rooms on a rolling basis depending on the date the housing application was received. All room assignments are made based upon available space and, when possible, in accordance with the preferences requested by the student. Failure to honor a preference will not void this Contract. Students may view their room assignment and roommate information via the housing portal (myhousing.wvu.edu).

All decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis.

10. Withdrawal Policy.

If a Resident officially withdraws from the University (drops all classes), and having obtained and completed appropriate forms and procedures, the unused portion of the room and dining fees will be refunded in accordance with University procedures. The "unused portion" will be based upon the date on which the Resident's belongings are removed from the room and the room keys are returned after officially withdrawing from the University.
